

day-rest-in-seven" was to restaurant owners.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

Guttenberg, N. J.—Bomb exploded in rear of home of Mayor Herrmann; wall of house demolished. No one injured.

Teheran, Persia.—Persian cabinet resigned; trouble over policy toward invasion of territory by Russians, Turks and British troops.

Cleveland.—B. C. Hill, Pittsburgh, receiving teller in Cleveland federal reserve bank, shot and killed self; financial worries.

Green Bay, Wis.—Bishop J. J. Fox, head of Catholic diocese of Green Bay, buried in Allouez cemetery.

Newark, N. J.—Rev. Louis R. Patmont, under indictment for arson in this county, arrested; charged with having fired Polish Christian Baptist church.

Denver.—Charles B. Bogue, Jr., shot and killed self on ranch owned by Etta Kelly, former Denver resort owner. Bogue was formerly employed by Armour & Co. in Chicago, where he lived with wife and children.

Keokuk, Iowa.—Mrs. Jane Arnold, 55, suicided by drinking carbolic acid. Said to have been drug victim unable to secure further supply.

Madison, Wis.—Republican state senate adopted resolutions extending to Pres. Wilson "congratulations, encouragement and support of people of Wisconsin for wise and able manner in which he is meeting trying problems of the day."

Cleveland.—Wm. Rockard given 3 months in jail for branding baby's back with red-hot quarter so he "could find the kid if he got lost."

Venice, Cal.—John Ortin, wealthy rancher, probably fatally injured when struck by driver Marquis' car during Venice grand prix auto race.

Terre Haute, Ind.—Local grand jury indicted 4 men for bribery of public official, presenting false claims and larceny in connection with mismanagement of office of trustee of Harrison township.

New York.—Eddie Foy, famous comedian, arraigned in court on charge brought by official of children's society that he permitted 14-year-old daughter Mary to appear in vaudeville sketch. Held for special session.

Santa Fe, N. M.—Believed 3 members of posse which pursued Mexican bandits out of town of Dwyer after store had been looted, killed.

Washington.—Collier Brutus ordered from Vera Cruz. Believed intended to aid Des Moines in caring for Americans.

Washington.—Count di Cellets, Italian ambassador, told Sec'y of State Bryan Italy is now ready to exchange paper ratifying proposed peace treaty with U. S.

Berlin.—American 3-masted schooner Pass of Balmaha, bound from New York to Bremen with cotton cargo, has gone aground. 7 members of crew rescued.

Middletown, N. Y.—G. A. Hotaling, night operator and station agent of West Shore R. R., Highland Falls, killed and station robbed.

NEW INTERESTING CLUE IN COOK DEATH MYSTERY

New Haven, Conn., March 18.—A new puzzle in the mystery surrounding the death of March 4 of Miss Lillian M. Cook, former stenographer of Virginus J. Mayo, was added today. Police discovered a new witness who claims to have seen an automobile with all lights extinguished, speed to the top of Westrock thirteen hours before Miss Cook's body was found there.

This circumstance was basis for a new theory that Miss Cook's death did not occur on the lonely mountain top.

It was reported that papers would be served here Saturday upon Mayo by the Scranton woman who claims him as her husband.